

Cat's
Paw
1965

- Margaret -

Is one of the sweetest and prettiest girls in the Junior class. I have thoroughly enjoyed having American History with you this year. You've been a great help to me in many ways this year. I'll never be able to forget all of the great adventures of "Our Gang" & how we always got into so much trouble. Now could anyone get into that much trouble & mischief. Well, it's been worth it anyway because we're only juniors once in a lifetime. That sounds ~~too~~ sad but it's true.

You have the mind & the personality to achieve anything you want in life. I hope you'll believe me because I really think of you as that way. Remember me when we have gone.

Love forever

Sulphur Springs
High School

Sulphur Springs
Texas

FOREWORD

Amid rushed deadlines, near collapses, frantic re-takes, and an acute shortage of tranquilizers, the annual staff completed the 1965
CAT'S PAW.

From picture scheduling, to writing copy, from ad selling to reading page proofs - all comprise the varied duties of the annual staff member.

Leaders of the staff, Sarah Wattenbarger,
Editor, and June Kirkpatrick, Business Manager, have co-ordinated the two phases of annual making into this record of the school year - 1964-1965.

Varied colors, in keeping with the many facets of a teen's life, are the staff's expression of the theme of this annual, "A Teen's World."

DEDICATION

To our friend,
confidante, and advisor.

When we needed a helping hand, you were always ready with a word of encouragement

We consider it our good fortune to have been students in your classroom.

The Seniors of 1965 are deeply grateful to you, Mrs. Lewis, for preparing us for our future in the college world. Our studies in your classroom have been many colorful and rewarding experiences.

For your help on the Cat's Tale, the entire school would like to take this opportunity to express its thanks to you.

It is with deep gratitude and devotion that we dedicate to you, this our 1965 Cat's Paw.

In Memoriam

Mr. John Gibson will be remembered by many students and teachers for his loyalty to our school, his kindness to friends, and his pleasure in everyday things.

In this modern world, we, as teen-agers, find ourselves on the receiving end of more freedom, more choices, more problems, more conflicting advice than ever before. For us the 4 to 8 years needed to cross over from childhood to adulthood form a uniquely trying interval of stress and groping. Thus, understanding teens today includes understanding us and the world in which we live--and some experts have already succeeded in grasping the big picture of what it is like to be a teen-ager today.

Come on you Fighting Wildcats, come on and fight!

Hit that line with all of your might,

Forward, onward, straight down the field,
Show them, Wildcats never will yield,

Rah! Rah! Rah!

Never let a foeman get by,

Victory, Victory, that is our cry!
Victory for old Sulphur High!

Teenagers in classes study everything from ping-pong to biochemistry. We are young and eager students who ask an endless number of questions and receive the answers with readiness and understanding. During the locker breaks, donuts are bought, books are dropped and laughter is heard, but when the bell rings, a strange quietness follows. In classes we learn to pay attention, to work toward a certain goal, and to appreciate the hard working teachers who help us so much; but most of all, in classes, we teenagers are learning.

What is it to be a Senior? It's a paradox . . . a feeling of finality, and yet, a feeling of commencement. It's a time to celebrate . . . a time to fling emotions out with the swirl of a formal dress . . . a time when emotions spill over as often as punch from a brim-full cup . . . when hopes are higher than a stack of gifts on the dining room table. It is the feel of a hand shake and a diploma tightly clutched in a dewey hand . . . the feeling of accomplishment . . . achievement . . . arrival . . . pride.

What is it to be a Junior? It is a lot of hard work . . . fighting the Civil War in American History and that first term theme. It is the repugnant odor of the Chemistry lab and the dusty stuffiness of chalk dust on the blackboard. It's red scratches on a returned test . . . wads of paper in the waste basket . . . the Junior year is a wonderful year, full of memories never to be forgotten.

Sophomore Class Officers

What is it to be a Sophomore? It's the joy of finally finishing that confusing freshman year . . . a time to actually be an accepted participant in the whirl of high school activities . . . a year in which to study a little and have a lot of fun. It's a year of dates and happy hours. Really it's the most carefree, fun-filled year in life. A Sophomore has risen from the "lowly" freshman's step, yet he has not hit the endless work of the Junior or the sentimentality of the Senior. Sophomores are happy people with lots ahead of them and a bit of experience behind them.

Freshman Class Officers

What is it to be a Freshman? After first thinking "Horrible" some good things come to mind. It is the first feeling of true adult responsibility, the fact that Freshmen are not children. The laughter at being called Fish, the football players so big and strong, the basketball so tall. The first corsage and a high school dance, the first night to get Dad's car. The honor of being a club member. The first pep rally. To be a Freshman begins the best four years in a boy or girl's life.

We as teenagers, more than anyone else in the world crave personality. Consider for a moment what makes us call someone dedicated, beautiful, brilliant, popular -and what makes us adore some people and admire others. It is a thing called personality. Personality is what we react to at first sight and at long last; it is what we long for, seek out, admire, initiate, and desire.

That special time at SSHS when excitement fills the school. October 9, 1964 marked this year's scheduled assembly for exes and students. The climax of the homecoming activities was the presentation of Linda Morris as the 1964 Homecoming Queen during the pre-game ceremonies of the Sulphur Springs-South Garland game. The annual affair was boosted by the fighting colors of blue and gold being worn by the entire student body, and the two pep rallies held in honor of the affair.

During the presentation ceremonies of Homecoming festivities, Queen Linda Morris was escorted by Captain Que Brittain.

Immediately after the Homecoming victory, a dance sponsored by the Cat's Tale and the Cat's Paw was held in the Junior High Gymnasium.

Everyone was in high spirits because of the smashing victory of 48-6 over South Garland, and many alumnae were present to help celebrate.

The dance proved a big success, and everyone went home with a feeling of accomplishment!

Winning in a teenager's world is a sure thing! All we have to do is play, because win or lose we get the most from being right in the middle, participating. We all want that shiny first place trophy - what is more natural than the will to win? We realize, though, that what counts in sports is our skill and our sportsmanship, not the points we rack up. So even if we fall short of the top score-wise, we can still look back on the great times we have had all along.

Routines Begin in Heat and End with Music, Sore Feet, and Tired Minds

Sulphur Springs High School can truly be proud of the Wildcat Band this year. The band has worked, worked, worked, and has accomplished many goals that Mr. Wilemon hoped they could achieve by the end of marching season. The band has many duties to perform to prepare for Concert Contest and Solo and Ensemble Contest, and the Floor Show, but through all the panic and last-minute fright, the band will come through with flying colors, as it has always done before.

Mr. Wilemon has quite a time trying to show Tommy Dickens and Joe Bill Robinson how to finger an unusual note.

Interscholastic participation - primarily athletics - involving Sulphur Springs representatives at the district level were begun with two new schools during the 1964-65 school year. The schools, Lake Highlands and South Garland, were added to District 6-AAA in the fall, while Paris - long a member of the district - was advanced to Class 4-A by the University Interscholastic League.

Both new district members are "second schools" in sprawling metropolitan areas near Dallas. South Garland is the second high school in the Garland school district and was constructed on Belt Line Road in the fast-growing southeast section of Garland. Lake Highlands is the second school in the Richardson district, but is located nearly seven miles from Richardson - in Northeast Dallas.

Both schools are in rapidly developing areas and are expected to be advanced to Class 4-A at the realignment date in Texas, in the fall of 1966.

Wildcats Close Season With 7-0 Loss to

District Champs Bonham

VIC BRITTAIN

The 1964 football team at Sulphur Springs High School took a giant step forward. For the first time in the history of the school we played top teams all the way. We opened our season against Paris from class 7AAAA, and won 14-8 after a hard battle. Then we took on Texarkana, winner of 4-AAAA this year and got beat. We came back to defeat Terrell by a score of 14-8 in a rough, tough game. This ended our non-district games.

We opened our district 6AAA with a 40-8 victory over Sough Garland, one of the new schools in the district. Then came big McKinney. We felt we were a little tight after the game because we lost by a score of 24-6, however, the score is no indication of the game. We just made too many mistakes to win. Next was Lake Highlands, the other 6AAA school. We knew we had to win to stay in the race. In the last quarter Lake Highlands went ahead 13-8; we took the ball and drove 65 yards to the one inch line. ---? We did not get the score. This will live in our hearts forever.

The Wildcats were not through. We won the next three games. Then came district champs - Bonham. After three full quarters, Bonham finally scored to break the ice in a defensive battle; they won 7-0.

The season is over; the years may pass, but the Wildcats will never forget 1964. These boys are champions in character, attitude, and desire.

Let us not forget that the difference between the champion and just another person is measured by inches and the little things he does in life, not miles or big things.

We challenge you: Give life everything you have - it will be worth it all.

KNEELING: Tommy Johnston, Charles Brim, Ike Harper, Mike Derrington, Joel Sheffield; STANDING: Thomas Wright, James Sheffield, Coach Leon Kennedy, Sammy Attlessey, Mike Passons

Not so much on ability, but rather desire, spirit, and hustle, the "Wildcats" of 1964-65 have established themselves as a team that will be long remembered in the history of basketball at Sulphur Springs.

Because of the high character, self-sacrifices, complete cooperation, outstanding academic work and the many other tributes of each boy, it is a sincere pleasure for me to have been their "Coach."

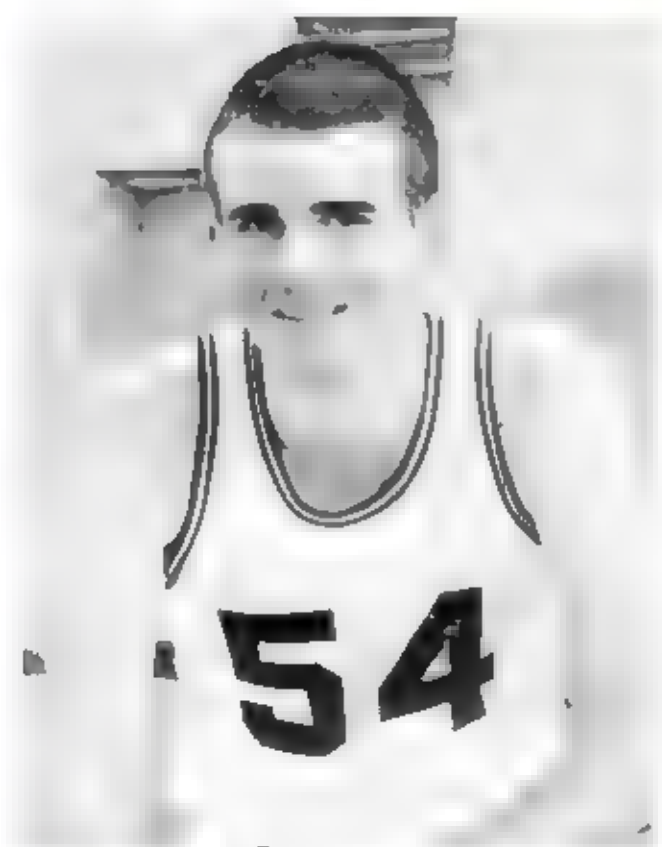

This team's motto might be "All for one and one for all", and may it carry over to all future athletics at SSHS.

We don't find many teenagers sitting on the sidelines waiting for things to happen, rather than going out making them happen. Most of us just will not find ourselves on the outside looking in. Belonging is the core on which we build many friendships, as well the pivot point at which we discover and develop talents and abilities. Belonging is a springboard which catapults teenagers right into the bustling center of activity, fun, friends, and rewarding experiences.

Hard Work Proves Rewarding

This year's Annual Staff has worked many long, hard hours to prepare the best yearbook yet.

A yearbook is not just a group of pages with pictures and writing enclosed in a hard back binding, but it is a sample of the memories, the experiences, the good times, the hard work, and everything else that compiles school life.

Amid the gripes and groans, the mistakes, the fits of panic, and the heart failures, the annual staff has enjoyed striving to make this year's annual the best!

The National Honor Society proved an honorable reward to many Juniors and Seniors this year.

The new members initiated will remember the life they should follow - to promote character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

If in years to come, someone should ask a National Honor Society member what the keystone and flaming torch represents he will be able to say proudly that it represents "knowledge," and that he was a member of such a rewarding and an outstanding organization.

Student Council Directs School Affairs

The Student Council has worked hard this year to promote more student participation in school activities, and they have done an outstanding job.

The members represent all phases of student government and school life, and each has been well represented this year.

It is an honor to be a member of the Student Council, because its members set an example for the rest of the student body, and this year's members have truly set that extra, extra example.

A magic seems to cling cloudlike to some certain somethings that make life seem a little better than usual, that shine in our memories and hearts just a little brighter than anything else. Heart's Festival Attracts Many Students

Junior Carla Brice is busily decorating the stage while Seniors June Kirkpatrick and Linda Morris attempt to hang a heart, which added to the atmosphere of the Valentine season.

Members of the Decoration Committee were in charge of decorating the cafeteria for the annual Heart's Festival dance and presentation of the King and Queen. The affair is one of the many dances which is sponsored by the Student Council during the school year.

After all students have cast their votes, the King and Queen are announced. At the dance each of the class representatives is also presented.

Anxious spectators await the announcement of King and Queen of Hearts on February 13, 1965.

Members of the court were Bill Caldwell - Linda Richey, Tommy Johnston - Linda Morris, Sammy Fox - Cathy Spencer, Tommy Rawson - Linda Ramey.

King and Queen enjoy dancing.

Who Has the Hardest Life

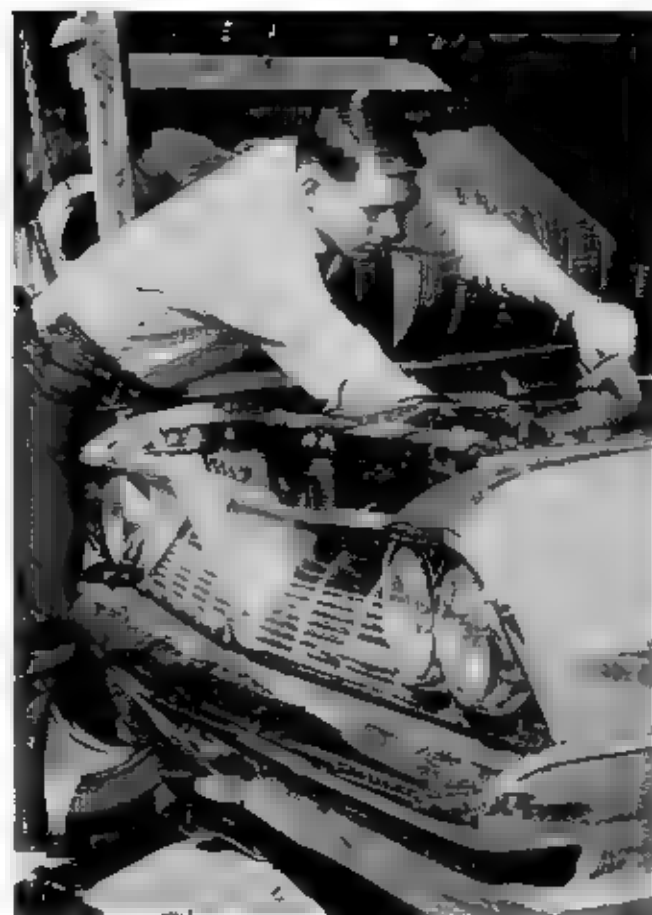

Well known Senior Norman Roberts isn't to be beaten without a struggle. He urges that boys are responsible for keeping the yard neat and the grass cut . . . some things girls aren't expected to do.

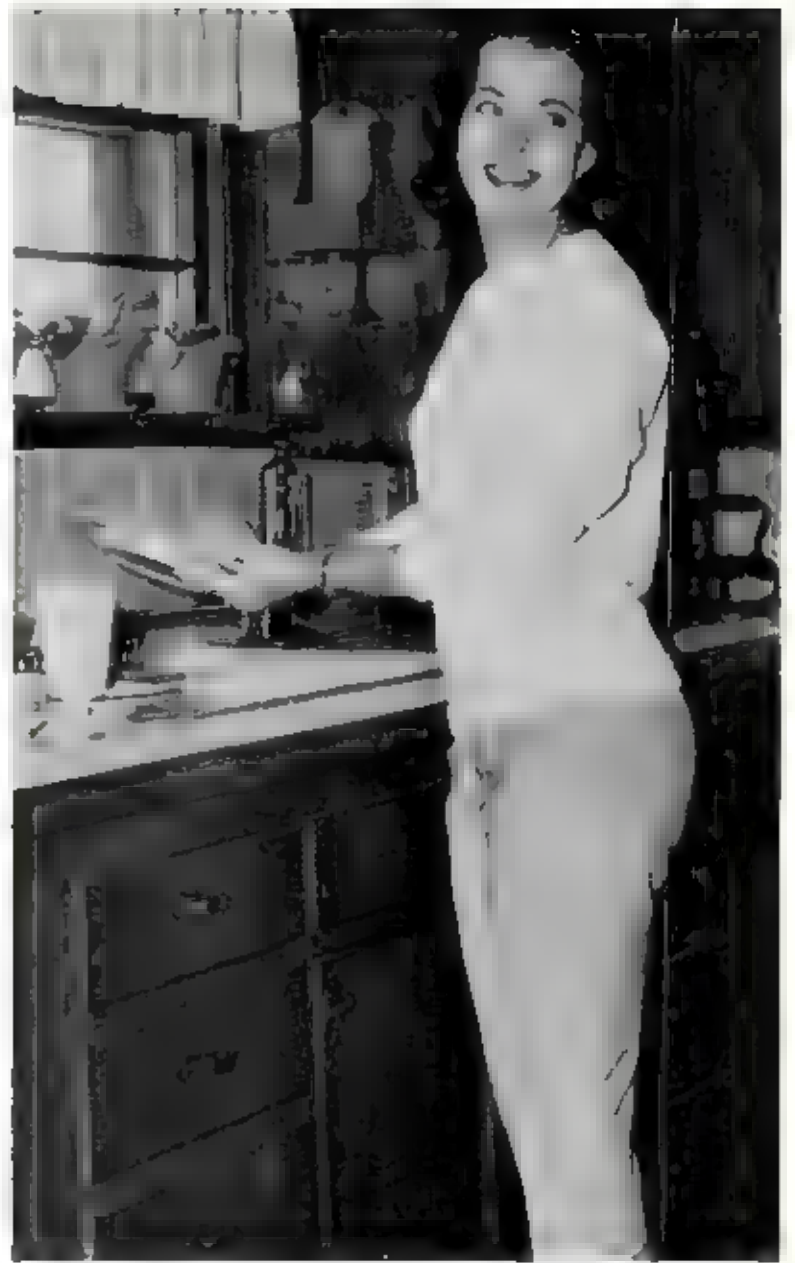

Norman points out to Sandra the many hours he spends working on his car to keep it in top notch condition.

"I have the hardest life!"
"No you don't, I do!"

When arguments begin over who has the hardest life, neither boys nor girls have a clear advantage.

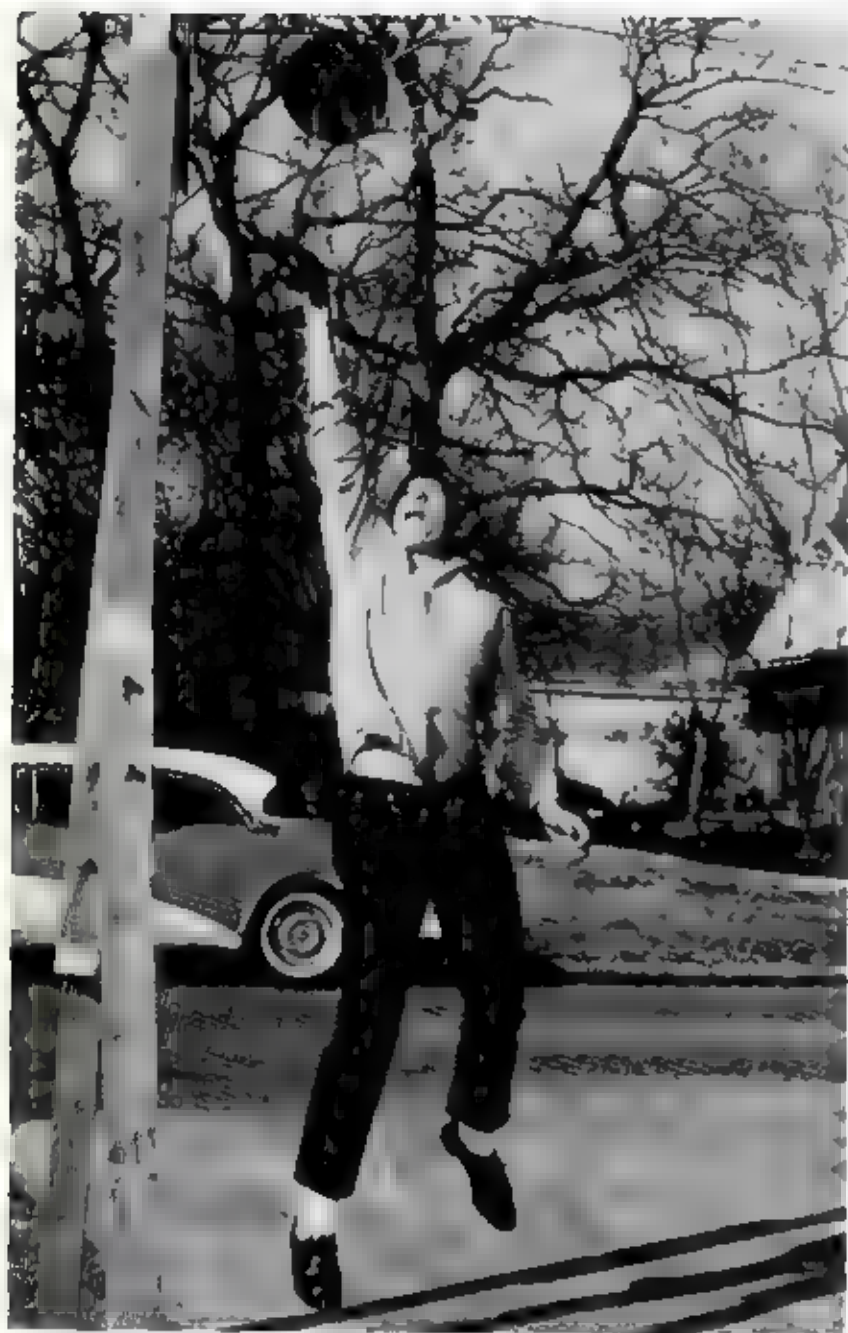

Teenage Girls are expected to wash dishes, iron their own clothes, and help with spring cleaning.

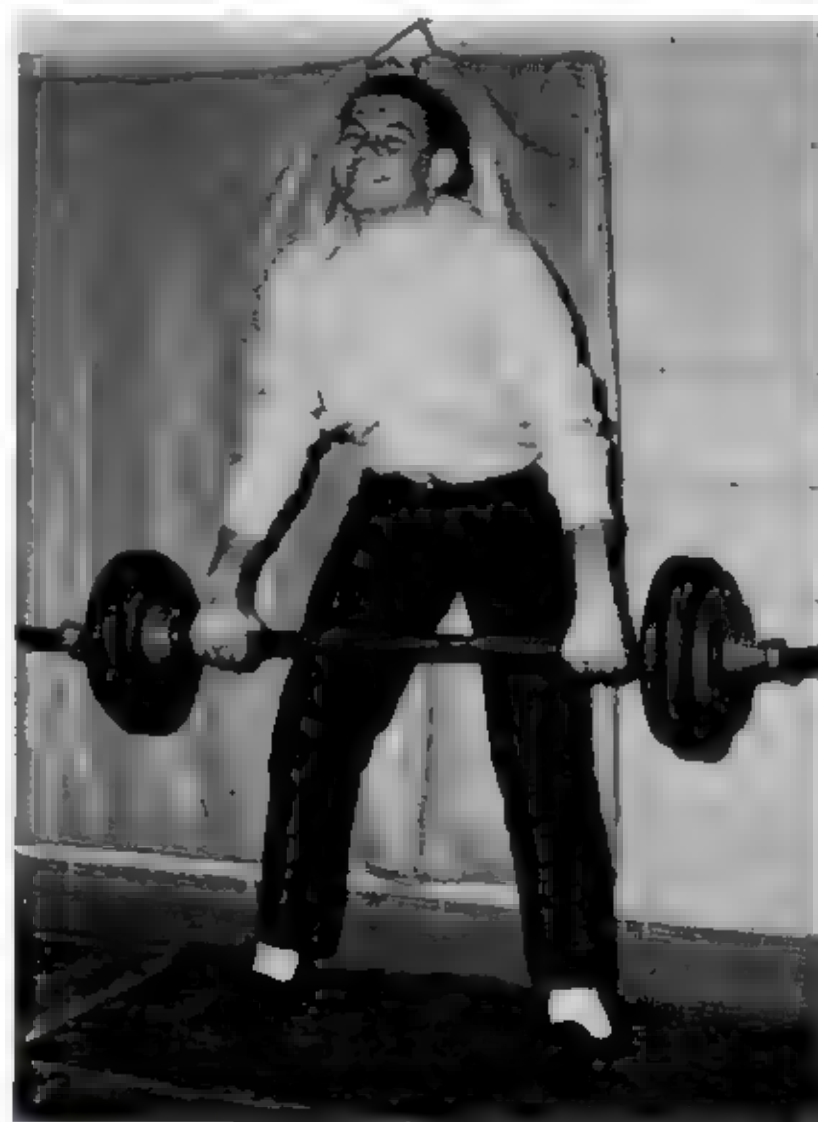

Popular senior moans her plight as she spoofs about her chores!

Who Has the Most Fun

But no matter who has the roughest time, it's certainly a toss-up over who gets the most fun out of life!

Norman is determined to win the argument and demonstrate the kick boys get out of sports.

But the most fun of all is standing on a corner watching all the girls go by!

Wait just a minute . . . Sandra has something to say about the situation.

Professional hair styles or "original" styles are just one of the privileges that members of the "fairer sex" can enjoy.

. . . and one of the GREATEST things about being a girl is buying new clothes.

Boys don't know the thrill of receiving a box of Valentine candy from someone special . . . or hearing an exciting bit of gossip from a confidant on the other end of the line.

Only in a Teenager's World . . .

. . . do students cooperate so they can do the best of work. Nita McCorkle, Jan Craver, Linda Ramey, and Rickie Carpenter make signs to hang in the halls to help boost the school spirit for the on-coming game.

. . . do delicate operations or tedious dissections arouse the interest of curious biologists. Kathy McKay and Mickey Persinger try their luck at dissecting.

. . . do after school workouts and practices make students appreciate what they have done, especially when all the work is over and the praise is given.

Outstanding Students Recognized at Honor Assemblies

As Mr. Scott called out the names of each student, Mr. Drake gave each one an honor card. Wanda Dodd received a gold card which represented the gold honor roll, or the "A" honor roll.

Senior Judy Jackson was among the many students who received a gold card for being on the "A" honor roll.

Those students who made the "B" honor roll were awarded the blue honor card.

During the awards assembly, the cheerleaders and the boys who lettered in a sport were given their letter jackets. Jacky Allen received his jacket with great joy.

Richard Persinger, NHS president, served as Master of Ceremonies at the assembly held in February. The assembly was sponsored by the National Honor Society. All the proceeds went to the March of Dimes drive held at Sulphur Springs High School.

The student body enjoyed acts by various groups of students and the coaches.

NHS Presents March of Dimes Assembly

Richard Persinger welcomed all students and teachers and introduced the entertainers for the March of Dimes assembly.

Sammy Burt accompanied his mother, Mrs. Bill Burt, and sister, Sandra in a number of religious selections.

As their share of the entertainment, the Blackouts, Connie Linington, June Kirkpatrick, Linda Morris, and Judy Gray pantomimed two popular songs.

Variety of Talents Amuse Students

Thomas Wright, Roy McGahee, and Charles Brim, better known as the Spinners, sang "I Believe" and "No Arms Can Ever Hold You".

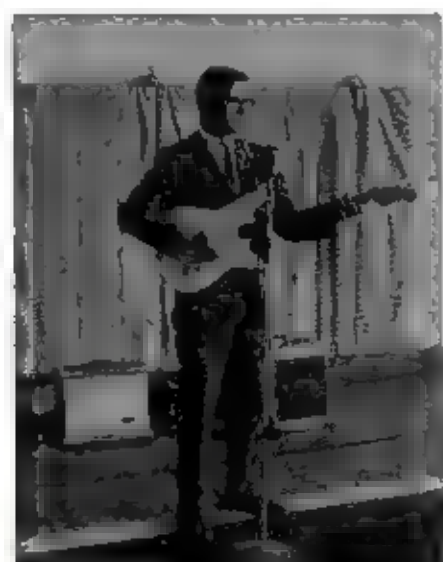

Doyle McKinzie entertained at the assembly with his musical talents.

Among our other talents, the SSHS coaches have an ability to sing.

Charles Brim and Sammy Atlesey amused the audience with their rendition of the "Mothers Brothers".

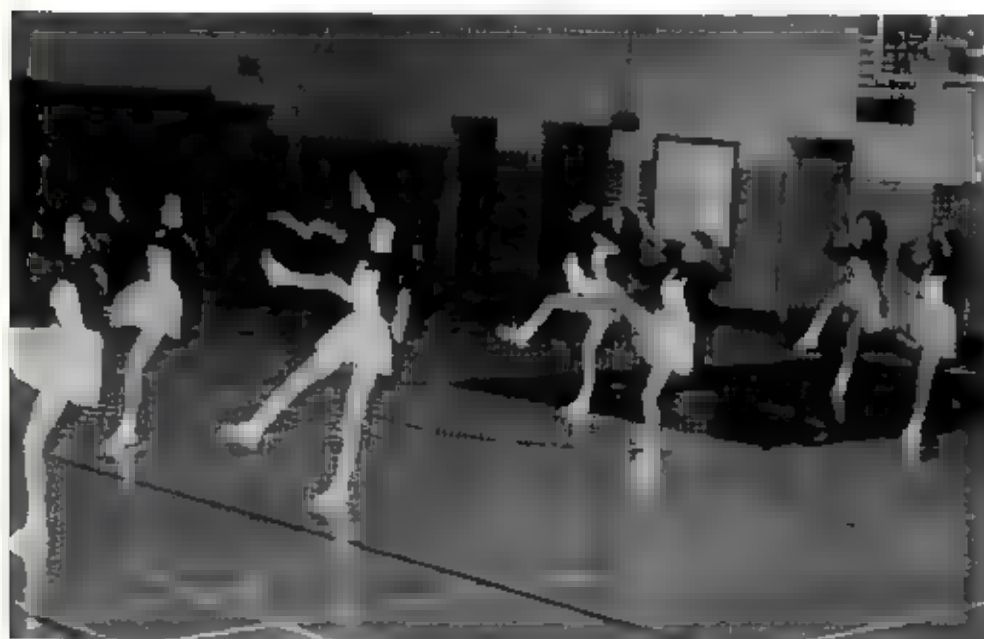

Sammy Burt, Brenda Bills, and Alice Ward displayed their talents by playing the guitar and singing.

Nineteen Members Added to Drill Team for Coming

As the tension rose and selected numbers were recalled, hopes mounted and mistakes decreased.

One could see tears of happiness and disappointment as the big moment arrived and the judges announced the winning numbers.

Olivia Pinion, Pam Carroll, Pam Peters, Tommie Sue Jackson, Jennifer Oppenheim, Alice Ward, Emily Pennington, Brenda Fulbright, Elvira Petross, Linda Moore, Karen Swindell, Ann Kindel, Janet Bailey, Diane Cox, Jeannine, and Jeanette Darby.

On Monday, February 8, 1965, drill team tryouts were held in the gymnasium. The judges were Helen Retando of Longview High School and Jenny Lynn Thompson, Captain of Kilgore Rangerettes.

With the exception of the press and radio, the tryouts were closed to the public.

After performing to a jazz routine, eighteen girls and one alternate were picked for the Blue Blazes.

Officer tryouts followed. The entire corps competed for officer positions. Five girls were selected by the judges. The corps elected a captain. Mrs. Jon Rhodes, instructor, appointed the co-captains, and the corps elected two line officers. The routine for officer tryouts was a high kick jazz number.

Present Blue Blaze officers demonstrated the techniques that were to be used by those seeking officer positions.

Only in a Teen's World . . .

. . . do typing students know the frustrations of the "fifth mistake".

. . . do Junior girls find so much to talk and laugh about at lunch.

. . . do students battle a foreign language. Freshman Jaime McKinney learns the correct way from Mrs. Ward, a Spanish teacher.

. . . do students in bookkeeping class wonder where that extra dollar is hiding.

Pride in a Teen's World

It takes many things to win a DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP. The boys who participate must be dedicated to this goal; the school and student body must have enthusiasm and support the team; and the community must support both the team and the school.

All of these things has been very evident and are the reasons for the success of the 1964-65 "WILDCATS". It has been a gratifying experience to me to have played a role and to have been a part of it all.

Coach Leon Kennedy

It is a great honor to be a small part of District 6-AAA's Championship basketball team, not only because of the personal satisfaction, but also because of the close association with a fine coach and a great group of boys. Being able to represent your school with pride is also a great honor.

SAMMY ATTLESEY

To play on a District Champion team is something I have always dreamed of, but I never thought it would come true. Sulphur Springs has been so close yet so far the last two years. I am just happy to be a part of this 1964-65 District Champion team.

IKE HARPER

Being part of a team that has succeeded in winning district has given me a feeling I have never before experienced. District Championship is what the team was working for and we won it. We have succeeded in winning district, and now we are heading for state.

MIKE MCKINNEY

Being district champions is a great honor for the school as well as for the team. It is a great feeling to know everyone is proud of you and appreciates what you have done.

JAMES SHEFFIELD

Being a member of the district champion team during my Sophomore year is something that I had thought about but never dreamed would happen. It is one of the biggest thrills that I have ever experienced.

JOEL SHEFFIELD

Winning the District 6-AAA Championship would be something in itself but winning under such a great coach makes the difference. Even to be a small part of that team fills one with pride.

CHARLES BRIM

A sense of accomplishment is the most rewarding thing about being a member of the 1965 Wildcats, Champions of 6-AAA. Although we were picked to finish 3rd or 4th, we won the title because of our hustle and desire. I know I will never forget the spirit shown by the coaches, cheerleaders, student body, and everyone else concerned with this team.

TOMMY JOHNSTON

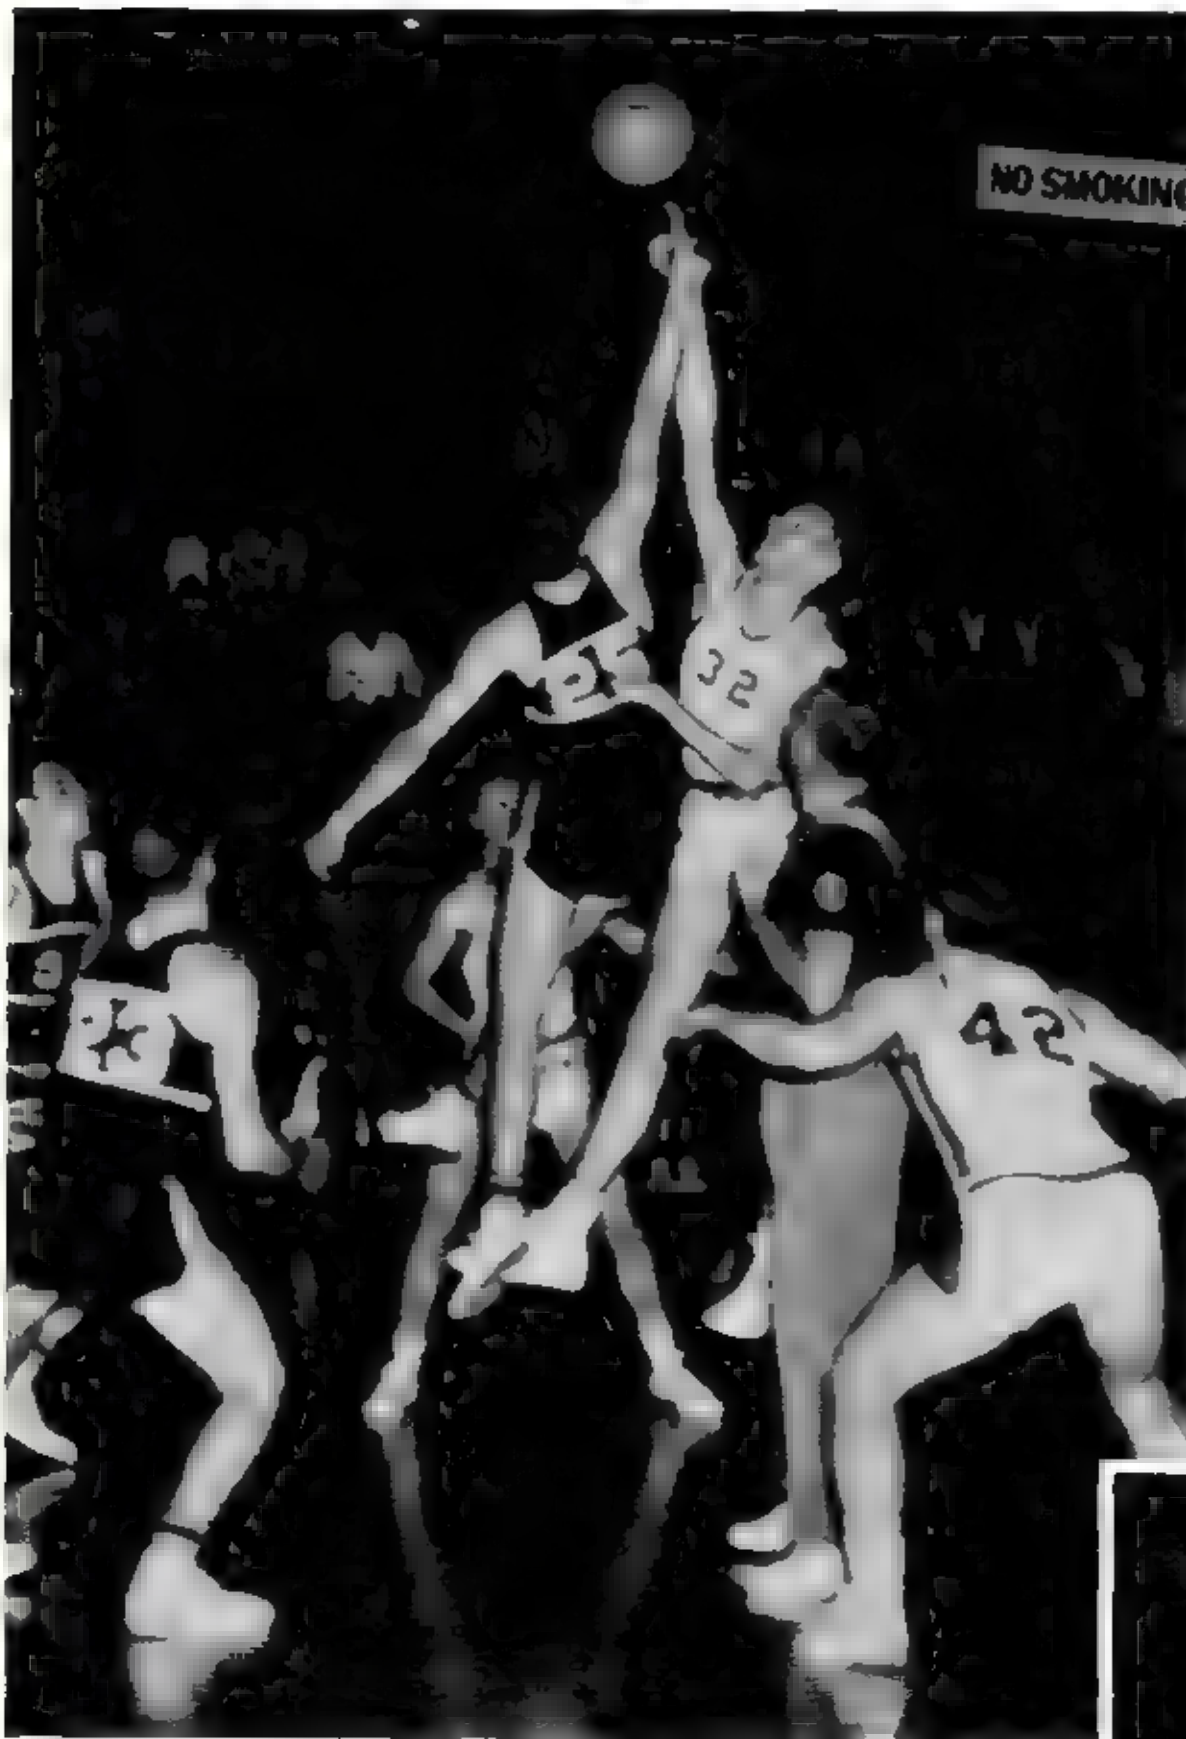

The fact that we weren't supposed to even be in the running makes our winning the district title very satisfying. Coach Kennedy has come so close the last two years that I am very happy we could win for him this year. It is a thrill to have the student body and the townspeople behind you. I'll never forget the Lake Highlands game or the expression on Coach Kennedy's face the night we clinched the title.

MIKE PASSONS

Being district champions is one of the greatest achievements that we can have. As far as feelings are concerned, I have no new outlook except for the feeling of satisfaction that I have done my best to represent my school through basketball.

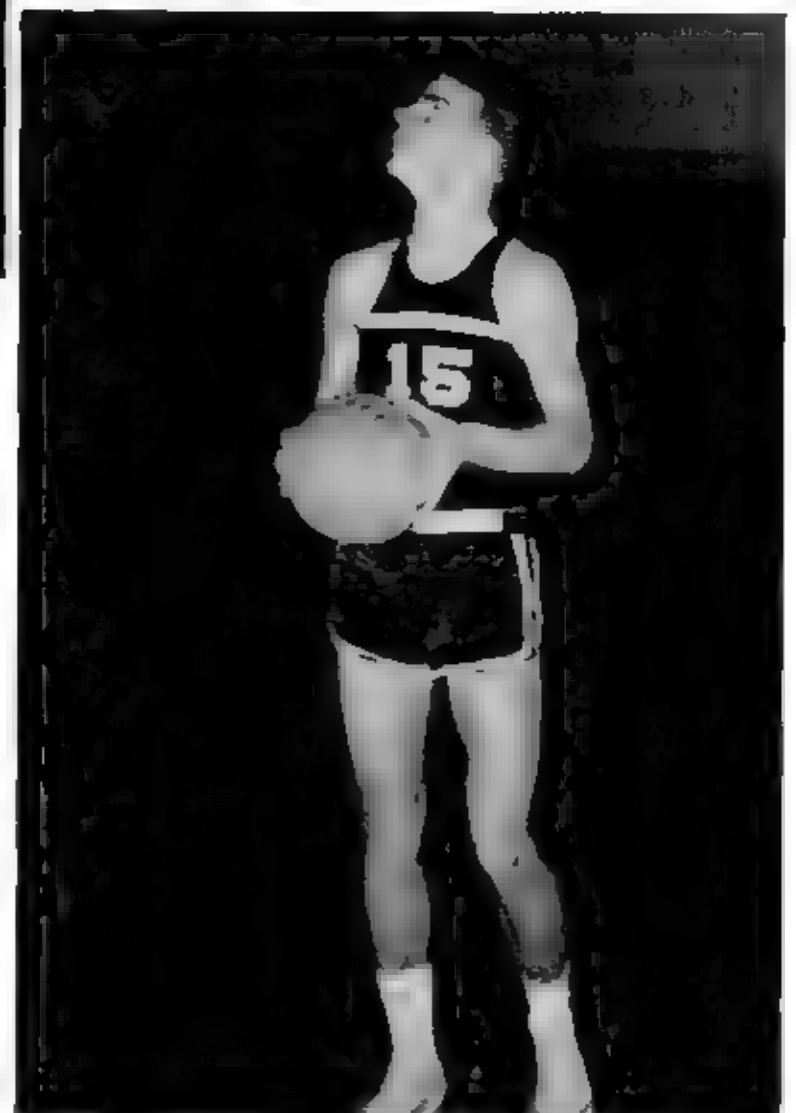

THOMAS WRIGHT

District 6-AAA

Senior Mike Passons battles for the tip-off in action against the Greenville Lions. Joel Sheffield and Thomas Wright stand ready for the ball to bounce their way. The Wildcats won the district battle 57 to 42 at the Greenville gymnasium.

Ike Harper, Junior starter for the Wildcats, just can't decide whether or not he's brave enough to try to make that basket. No telling what goes through his mind as he gazes at that orange ring with the net hanging from it!!!

Champions in Action!

It seems as if the Wildcats and the South Garland Colonels are spell-bound for a split second as they watch to see if Mike Passons can make his two points. There were many, many exciting seconds like this one, but the Wildcats always managed to come out on top.

Thomas Wright tries his skill at being a ballet dancer as he leaps into the air while attempting to score two points for the Wildcats. The South Garland boys tried their best to down the Wildcats, but their attempt was unsuccessful, with the final score being 71 for the Wildcats and 62 for the Colonels.

In the Gainesville game played at Sulphur Springs, Sammy Attlessey charges right in there to try to snatch that ball away from the Leopards, while Joel Sheffield anxiously watches from a distance. The Wildcats defeated the Leopards 70-45.

In a world where transistor radios, personal phones, and hi-fis are regarded as necessities, not luxuries, teenagers are just bound to possess a tremendous buying power. Appeal, though, is what really counts. Every product we buy fits into a special corner of our sometimes wacky, sometimes dreamy, sometimes serious world. Through advertising, merchants have thrust into public view a unique image of the American teen—an image which flaunts our ever changing fancy and which whispers about a down-to-earth practicality that is all ours.

Boy, how did we ever think of those crazy names?

Maybe I'm not around you as much as the other girls (because of Frank - but I don't regret it though) but I want ^{to} know you're just as dear to me as ^{to} any-one else.

I can't even remember how we started running around together - I'm just glad we did - even though you are "mean" at times. But there are a lot of good times to remember - the slumber parties, the stock farms, etc. (you know). I suppose we'll remember those things the rest of ~~our~~ ^{our} lives.

Margy, I guess you're just about the sweetest girl I know. I think you'll always be happy - at least I hope you are.

Next year, we'll finish school and leave to lead our own lives - if you ~~and~~ both stay here (which is rather unlikely) we'll probably be helping each other ^{find} ~~find~~ (??)

So good and don't do anything I wouldn't do - but be good!
Love you always,
Anne R.

High school years bubble over with the whirl, dash, fun, and even tears of a teenage world. In these blooming, miraculous years a strange new force within each of us pushes forward and opens up an exciting new world - a world where club members rack their brains to come up with the most original party ideas, where giving the ball team that extra little boost is worth being drenched to the skin. All we do is project our creativeness, our care, and our enthusiasm into living.

Those treasured years of high school life will not remain forever; yet the memories will remain.

The quiet walks by still, mirror-like lakes are often times of retrospect. It is then that a teenager begins to search his innermost feelings, groping for the truth of tomorrow.

The misty memories of the years that are past - the doubts and fears, the hopes and aims - become vivid when a teenager pauses to look again at a scrapbook bulging with souvenirs.

Today is a teen's world - tomorrow an adult's world.

- Margaret -
It's been a lot of fun
knowing you this year.
I will never forget the good times we have had together. There has really been some wild ones. Just think next year ^{we} will be "Mrs. 66" doesn't that sound good.
I hope we can always continue to be good friends
Good luck always,

Kay

Margaret,
- Mandy - Mac -

Mandy, I guess you realize that I consider you my best friend. No one has helped me like you have. Man, I don't know what I would have done without you help & guidance
when I was going with Stan, because like that was rough (ha!)
Of course that's not all you have helped me with, and I believe my I will never forget all the things you have helped me through.

P.S. Dig the crazy way I wrote on the page. ha ha
well, I am crazy!

Your friendship means a lot to me, and I only hope that we will always be the best of friends.
You understand, manner is just one part of your wonderful, crazy personality. Mandy, whether you believe or not, you are intelligent, and I know that you will choose well in college (I will), and later on in your life.
I know that you are going to make some very fortunate man. A wonderful wife, someday, I even though marriage is the farthest thing from your mind right now. (ha!) But never fear, you will change your mind, in time!
I will never forget all the good, wild times we have had together, starting with when I still lived to it. Remember the 80's? ha ha! Just think of all the good times we will have next year on the 10th of your year. (ha!) I really can't believe we will actually be there.
Mandy, I wish you the best, and only one best,
that you be one I know deserves it more than any other. I wish you success in everything you do. I wish you happiness & beauty.
My Love Always,
Jenny

"The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made"

Dear Margaret,

I will start by saying that I don't know what I would have done without you in study hall this year. You are a fine person with a great personality. I have enjoyed knowing you and I want us to continue to be very good friends.

Best of luck

David
